

In2net Knowledgebase

Function: All Applications

The All Applications function displays all applications installed in your VPS. Here you can add applications or remove applications installed in your server.

Please note that the All Applications is not an upgrade function, it is just a function to manager the applications included in your VPS Hosting Plan. If you need an application that is not included in your Hosting Plan, you will need to upgrade your Hosting Plan.

<https://kb.in2net.net/questions/14/>