

Function: Account Management

This screen demonstrates your current account contact profile.

This screen demonstrates your current account profile. In addition, here you can enter your Tax Exemption Code (VAT number).

This screen shows you the current settings for notifications language and format as well as the set of notifications you can disable or enable.

The Account Management functions on the My Account dashboard allows you to manage your account contact profile, as well as your account and notification preferences.

<https://kb.in2net.net/questions/18/>